

Declaration on the honor about the origin of timber

I, undersigned (name, surname, position) representative of (company name and address) declares on the honor that no sales of timber to the company Saint-Gobain contains wood from controversial sources.*

Timber or products including wood come from the following geographical areas:

Type of supplied product (scantling, ...)	Material	Wood specie (common or botanical name)	Country of harvest (and region)	Supplier certification (hardcopy required)

I agree to inform the company Saint-Gobain and buyer in charge ...(name, surname, country) of any change in my timber origins.

I agree to give to the company Saint-Gobain, in case these timber were considered as posing a risk, the information I have on its supply chain and I will authorize the inspections in my company which may be required.

Date:

Signature:

Company stamp:

* Controversial Sources means:

- Illegal logging or illegal trade of timber or forest products;
- Destruction of "high conservation value" forests;
- Logging of threatened or endangered species classified by the Cites;
- Significant conversion of forests into plantations or any other non-forest uses;
- Use of genetically modified organisms in forestry;
- Violation of human or traditional rights in forest operations;
- Violation of the provisions as defined in the ILO declaration on fundamental labor, rights and principles.

 Risk defined as per following regulations when applicable:

- EU Timber Regulation (EUTR) N°995/2010 for suppliers located in European Union
- US Lacey Act for deliveries to North America
- Australian Illegal Logging Prohibition Bill for deliveries to Australia

In case of identified risks, I need to send my risk mitigation plan and needed declarations to Saint-Gobain

